Every lover of the drama should go and see "The Thief."—N. Y. Tribune.

As played for ten months at the Lyceum Theatre New York.

PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Cheney expect to leave the last of the week for Rumford Falls, Me., where they expect to spend the winter. Their many friends hope to see them back here again in the spring.

Mrs. Walter P. Smith is visiting friends in Brookline, Mass.

W. H. Preston and family leave for Exeter, Cal., this week to make their future home with Mr. Preston's son, Clarence. The best wishes of many friends here and elsewhere go with them.

Hon. Horace F. Graham of Craftsbury, state auditor, was here yesterday examining the accounts of the county clerk.

Announcements have been received here of the wedding at Woodsville, October 10, of Miss Grace Bennett of that place and David MacLaren Beck of St. Johnsbury. Mr. Beck has resided here a year and is employed in the Metropolitan Insurance office.

Miss Ruth Colby Impey is in Boston this week, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Christie Richardson.

Joseph Cheney has gone to Boston where he will study music this winter with R. Toll. He has been playing in Rutland for two years and this summer has played clarinet with Young's orchestra at Intervale.

Miss Mabel L. Spencer spent several days last week in Plymouth, N. H.

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Tyrie of Stafford Springs, Ct., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Turner until Thursday, remaining over for the chicken pie dinner today.

Mrs. Fred Pierce of Barton spent Sunday here. Monday she and Miss Grace Switzer started for Newark, N. J., where they will spend a week with friends.

Miss Sara E. Carrick spent last week at West Danville.

Miss Margaret Robie is spending the week in Palmer, Mass., and Ludlow.

H. C. Soule of St. Albans has been spending a few days at Elisha May's.

Mrs. Cordelia Caswell will entertain the members of the 70 Club and friends at her home this afternoon at 3 o'clock on the occasion of her 82d birthday.

Mrs. James Mann is visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Hamilton, of Dorchester, Mass.

Miss Anna Mann spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mann of Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Harris have been spending a few days in Boston.

Homer Stanton has been spending a few days at his home in Danville.

Mrs. Alma Davis is spending a short time in Boston.

Albina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Costa, who underwent a serious operation Saturday, has been very ill but was reported a little better yesterday.

Mrs. H. F. Estabrooks visited friends in McIndoes last week.

Mrs. A. L. Bragg is visiting friends in Lowell and Boston.

Mrs. William Parks and Mrs. Daniel Woodside are visiting relatives in Haverhill, Mass.

Miss Marion Smythe goes today to Hanover, N. H., to enter the training school for nurses at the Mary Hitchcock hospital.

Mrs. B. I. Staples went yesterday to Barre and will accompany Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Varney on the excursion of the 13th regiment to Gettysburg and Washington.

W. W. Blodgett, who is working for the Fairbanks company at Sherbrooke spent Sunday at home.

Chauncey Adams is spending the week in Boston.

Rev. A. J. Gage gives an address before the Berkshire Baptist Association at Pittsfield, Mass., the coming week and goes from there to Bellows Falls where he will give an address upon missions in the Sunday school before the state Sunday school convention.

At the meeting of the Home for Destitute Children in Burlington last week, Mrs. Walter P. Smith was elected manager for Caledonia county.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Hill and Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Aldrich and Miss May Tillotson visited the legislature at Montpelier last week.

At the state meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Montpelier the 21st, Mrs. Robert Mackinnon will respond to the address of welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Mayo have been visiting in Burlington and Rutland.

Colby Stoddard has been appointed official reporter of the Senate to succeed C. V. Ponin of Rutland, who is critically ill with appendicitis.

Mrs. Fannie Genge is visiting her old home in Philadelphia.

Prof. and Mrs. Henry Fairbanks are attending the annual meeting of the American Board at Brooklyn. Prof. Fairbanks is a corporate member of this foreign missionary organization.

The many St. Johnsbury friends of Col. Charles A. Woolson will regret to learn that his beautiful residence in Springfield was destroyed by fire Sunday. The fire caught from a chimney burning out, and it is believed that Col. Woolson will immediately rebuild.

Bert Blossom of North Hatley, P. Q., visited his brother, Howard, the first of the week, and is now enjoying a tour of the White Mountains in Howard Blossom's automobile.

Mrs. Harry A. Blodgett is spending the week with friends in St. Albans.

The 500 club gave a dinner to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Weeks on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Staples.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Smythe have gone to housekeeping in Mrs. Uriah Elliott's house.

Mrs. W. A. Jackson of Greensboro, Mrs. Addie Sawyer of Boston and Edson Pinney, who has recently moved from Chicago to Wolcott, are visiting their sister, Mrs. C. A. Calderwood.

Social Affairs at the Churches.

The Epworth League of Grace Methodist church held the first social meeting of the season Monday evening with about 30 in attendance. After a short business session the Lonely Lane School with its various classes kept the company entertained.

The same evening the South church Round Table entertained the members of the Sunlight Club. A program was given consisting of a violin solo by Miss Glen Robinson, vocal solos by E. R. Mackey and E. N. Carter, piano solos by Miss Lena Blanchard of San Francisco and a short address by C. P. Howland. After the program a delicious oyster supper was served.

Annual Meeting.

At the annual meeting of the Vermont International Telegraph Company Wednesday the following board of directors were elected: John C. Clark, Arthur P. Stone, E. A. Silsby, H. W. Blodgett, Charles W. Rutter. The board will organize at the next meeting of the board of directors. This company owns and operates an independent line along the St. Johnsbury & Lake Champlain railroad from Swanton to Lunenburg, the line having been erected before the railroad was built.

The Man from Brodney's.

By George Barr McCutcheon; illustrated in color by Harrison Fisher.

The dashing, debonaire hero and soldier of fortune meets the charming Princess of Rapp-Thorberg on a faraway island of Japet, where a Bostonian and his wife and an English lord and his wife live among the hostile, fanatical Mussulmans. This supplies Mr. McCutcheon with ample material for many stirring situations and romantic scenes of the "Gaustrark" order. At Randall & Whitecomb's.

The Ideal Corset.

The Newest Fall Models

The Parisian Habit Back

being the most modish and up-to-date Corset creation decreed by latest fashions. The American women are beginning to realize what the French women have always known—the value of a well modeled and properly fitted corset. The average French woman will pay $5.00 for the corsets and shoes to $1.00 for dress and always look chic. She appreciates that the lines of the corset show, even if covered with drapery. It lies right at the foundation of her whole make-up and the graceful curves of her form can only be brought out by the corset that is designed for her type of figure. They are made of the most durable materials, with the greatest care and skill, and boned with

IDEAL SPIRELLA STAYS

A STORY WITH A MORAL.

A DUCK which had faithfully stuck to business during the summer and had laid several dozen large, finely-formed eggs, complained that she was not appreciated.

"She that hen over there?" said she. "She hasn't laid as many eggs as I have, nor as big, but she has books written about her, and verses composed in her honor, while nobody is saying a word about me."

"The trouble with you is," said a wise rooster, who was standing near, "that you don't tell people what you have done. You lay an egg and waddle off without saying a word, while that sister of mine never lays one without letting everyone in the neighborhood know it. If you want to cut any ice in this community you must learn to advertise."
